Life Group Questions (provided by Tony Watts)

Re-Read 1 Peter 1:22-2:3

1. What astounds you the most about the gospel?
2. Why do you think Peter is exhorting the listeners to love one another and put away hate while simultaneously talking about how short life is?
3. Have you had any experiences yourself or with those close to you that remind you of the fragility of life? I.e., a near death experience or the death of a loved one
4. What do you feel is your greatest weakness or idol that you give too much priority to? What do you give too much time to that you can't take with you into eternity?
5. Thinking about your answer to the first question; how hungry and thirsty are you for the things of God? Why are you not more hungry and thirsty for him?
6. You've tasted the kindness and goodness of God. How can you hungrily pursue that goodness without making it religion? What would be the purpose of doing so?
